

Creation Set As Subject for Sermon

The completeness, permanence, and glory of God's perfect creation will be expounded in the Sunday lesson-sermon on "God the Only Cause and Creator" in the First Church of Christ Scientist, 1750 Manuel. The Golden Text is from Isaiah (45:18): "Thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the Lord; and there is none else."

Sally Sprout Engaged to Wed R. Clayton Mallard

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sprout of 1327 Beech ave., announced the engagement of their daughter, Sally Ann, to R. Clayton Mallard, at a buffet luncheon held on Sunday, November 27, in the patio of the Sprout home.

The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mallard of 4552 161st st., Lawndale.

Lovely Miss Sprout with her fine record of scholastic and social achievement is representative of the ideal young woman that people like to visualize when they speak of the typical American girl.

She met R. Clayton Mallard when they were both sophomores at Torrance high school. Both graduated with the class of 1954. She was senior class president, secretary of the student body during her senior year, and winner of the Bank of America gold cup award for Vocational Arts.

She was a member of the Tartar Ladies, a life member of the Scholarship Federation, and belonged to G.A.A. She received a scholarship to Whittier college where she is now a sophomore majoring in education. She is a member of the Metaphonian society and the Sophomore Service Committee.

Groom-Elect

Mallard was a member of the Varsity club, and the Tartar Knights. He was track team captain and active in basketball. He attended El Camino college last year, and is now employed at Parker Aircraft.

Approximately 100 guests were present at the engagement luncheon.

The buffet table was placed before an open window which was framed by trellises in which autumn leaves had been intertwined. On either side of the trellises were vases holding glowing chrysanthemums and leaves, framing the open window through which could be seen a tree trunk carved with two hearts and the initials "C. M." and "S. S."

Guests

Attending the affair were Melba Jean, Linda, and Peggy Sprout, sisters of the bride-to-be; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sprout, paternal grandparents; and Mrs. Maggie Savage, maternal grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mallard, Kenneth and David Mallard, Clayton's brothers; and Anita Fern and Gaylene Sue Mallard, Clayton's sisters, were present.

Former classmates from Torrance high school attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bezanon, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Zander Michaelle Silver, Claire Bentwood, Suzanne Beck, Janet Van Dyke, Doralee Chaffin, Babs O'Hanlon, Adele Curtiss, Lorraine Miller, Pat Pierce.

Robert McCutcheon, Bill Ochert and Jerry Neely.

Guests from Torrance included: Mrs. Sam Neely, Mrs. William Barcroft, Mr. and Mrs. Homer St. Martin and daughter, Diane; Mrs. Gordon Russell and sons, Gary and John; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Savage and daughter, Kathy; Mrs. Anna Baker and son, Dick; Miss Judy Mayo, Mrs. Jane Betts, Mr. and Mrs. William Hermann, Mr. and Mrs. William Ochert, Miss Helen Haas, Mrs. Fred Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Humphreys and daughter, Nancy; Mr. and Mrs. George Bradford and daughter, Maureen; and Mr. and Mrs. John Siegfried.

Classmates of the bride-to-be from Whittier college included: Mary Sue Easley and Jane Fischer of Torrance; Janet Ziler of Downey, Carol Leech of San Luis Obispo, and Lois Okahiro of Hawaii.

Walteria P-T-A Will Feature Yule Carols

A Christmas pageant and carolers will be featured at a membership meeting of the Walter school P-T-A at 2 p.m. on Thursday, December 8, in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Charles Jackson, president, will be in charge, and second grade room mothers will be hostesses.

A session of the board of directors is scheduled for 2 p.m. today at the home of Mrs. Fred White, courtesy chairman, at 24603 Madison avenue.

The group held a paper and rag drive Monday.

Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Richard DeMott, assistant hospitality chairman, recently presented a gift to Frank Taylor, room seven instructor, whose wife is expecting a baby.

Children of room seven participated in the celebration.

GROWING OLD

Fear of growing old may be more debilitating than the actual aging process, says an associate professor of physical education on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California.

NEW TRIPLE-T COMMITTEE . . . New committee members of the Triple-T dance club were feted by the outgoing committee at a dinner party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Bingham, 1510 Engracia. Lomita Fuchsia Club Plans Philanthropic Yuletide Fete

The Lomita Fuchsia society plans to hold a Christmas party on Friday December 16, at the American Legion hall 24702 Narbonne ave., in place of their regular meeting.

Members will exchange gifts and bring new toys for the annual toy drive. The toys will then be given to the Lomita Optimist's club for distribution to Lomita children.

The Fuchsia society also plans to send a check to the Optimists for the same fund.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Eipper of 25338 Pennsylvania ave., will entertain the executive board and their families at a Christmas party on Wednesday, December 14. A gift exchange is planned.

Mrs. Victor Bittner and Mrs. Kermit Gluth, co-chairmen for the "Fourth Annual Fall Festival," expressed their thanks for the work done to make the affair a success.

Prizes were won at the recent evening meeting. Mrs. Thomas Hargrave received a portable barbecue grill donated by Don

Armes.

Mrs. C. O. Eipper won a sprinkler donated by Les Steigh and an electric iron donated by John Hanna.

A fish order donated by Carl Stiles went to Donald Bittner; and a car wash donated by A. Griffen went to Kenneth Terry. Door prizes were awarded to Mrs. Bruce Bain, Mrs. Kermit Gluth, and Mrs. Ken Terry. Birthday gift plants were given to Mrs. M. Silcott, Al Stubbs, and Mr. and Mrs. Gluth.

Mrs. Sylvia Leatherman of El Monte was guest speaker on the subject of ferns.

A plant exchange was held; and refreshments were served by Mrs. John Slaughter.

P-T-A Collects For Christmas Basket Drive

Howard Wood P-T-A will meet tonight at the school. They will discuss progress made on the collection for Christmas baskets to be given to needy families.

The association held its last meeting at the home of Mrs. M. D. Scoles, 1841 Middlebrook road.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. William Dickson, president. Inspiration was given by Mrs. F. Otterstein and the treasurer's report was read by Mrs. P. M. Crossman.

A letter of resignation was received from Mrs. R. Oliver who has been compelled to resign due to ill health.

A report was given by Mrs. D. Clark, ways and means chairman, on the rummage and bake sale held recently at the civic auditorium.

A report was made by Mrs. L. Pollock on the Parent's Education study group.

Foundation Meets Today

The next Mother's club meeting of the Harbor Area Exceptional Children's foundation will be held today from 9:30 to 11 a.m., at the Toberman Settlement House, 131 North Grand ave., San Pedro, announced Mrs. Agnes Bowen, recording secretary.
